The Importance of Light	A Importância da Luz
Paulo Barbosa	Paulo Barbosa
Many people have visited the Lincoln Memorial in the United States.	Muita gente já visitou o Memorial Lincoln nos Estados Unidos.
Millions of individuals have stood before that structure of white marble, admiring the irresistible statue of Lincoln, the work of sculptor Daniel French.	Milhões de pessoas já estiveram diante daquela estrutura de mármore branco, admirando a irresistível estátua de Lincoln, obra do escultor Daniel French.
When the statue was first unveiled in 1922, it was found that Lincoln's facial features were grossly distorted due to faulty lighting.	Quando a estátua foi mostrada pela primeira vez, em 1922, verificou-se que as características faciais de Lincoln estavam grosseiramente distorcidas por uma iluminação defeituosa.
Later corrections were made, and visitors were able to behold that face as it truly is.	Mais tarde as correções foram feitas, e os visitantes puderam contemplar aquele rosto como ele verdadeiramente é.
Lighting is of great importance when one wishes to see things clearly.	A iluminação tem grande importância quando se deseja ver as coisas com clareza.
If we view life only under the light of competition and conflict, that light can distort the images and we will end up not having a perfect idea of what life is.	Se encaramos a vida apenas sob a luz da competição e do conflito, essa luz pode distorcer as imagens e acabaremos não tendo uma idéia perfeita do que a vida é.
We can also deceive ourselves when considering people under the light of what they have done	Podemos nos enganar também ao considerarmos as pessoas sob a luz do que elas fizeram para nós.

for us.
If we look at them only from this perspective, we may not really know who they are.	Se as olharmos apenas sob esse prisma, poderemos não saber realmente quem elas são.
Grotesque caricatures can be shown when distorted lights are used.	Caricaturas grotescas podem ser mostradas quando luzes distorcidas forem usadas.
These lights may be colored according to what we choose to see in people.	Essas luzes poderão ser coloridas de acordo com o que escolhermos ver nas pessoas.
The life we live and the people we deal with will only be truly known if we seek to see them with the correct lighting, without distortions and wrong colors.	A vida que vivemos e as pessoas com quem lidamos só serão verdadeiramente conhecidas se buscarmos vê-las com a iluminação correta e sem distorções e cores erradas.
The light comes from us, and it is essential for seeing the world around us.	A luz vem de nós, e ela é essencial para vermos o mundo ao nosso redor.
